This book was purchased for my twelve year old son in an attempt to encourage him to read more! Although he does share my love of books YouTube seems to have taken over his life recently so I have been picking up short books like this as some bedtime reading for him. My boy actually read the book in one sitting and has forever since been providing us with facts about Messi. Clearly the parts of the book he enjoyed the most were when reading about Messi's teenage years as for obvious reasons this was something he could both identify and dream about! I have read through the book myself and it is an inspirational rags to riches story, I can see why my boy enjoyed it so much, lots of trivia about the man himself, loved the bit about being offered a Barca contract which was written on a napkin! This is an obvious choice for football fans but readers who enjoy sports biographies and trivia will also enjoy it.
