A Love Letter To Texas Women

to my future daughter-in-law, (recently transplanted) so she'll know what wonderful women came before, and are here now to "neighbor" with.

I last saw Ann Richards at the Bobbi Brown counter in the Houston Galleria. It was well after her diagnosis. She looked like a million dollars, grinning at everyone and buying cosmetics. Thank you for reminding me. I love everything Sarah Bird writes, so much that I'm about to start over.

Short, sweet and entertaining, especially if you are a Texas woman or just need help understanding them. If you haven't already, buy everything Sarah Bird has ever written.

A perfect essay/ book! I bought one for all my dear Texas woman!!

A super addition to the Mother's Day list for 2016!

Hysterical! Loved it!
