Beginner Guitar Lessons - Level 1: IPlayMusic Book/DVD Pack

Synopsis

(Music Sales America). With this book and DVD combination you'll learn the essentials you need to start playing songs on your guitar right away, without learning complex theory or reading music! We teach you to play songs made famous by artists like Eric Clapton, the Beach Boys, Willie Nelson, Creedence Clearwater Revival, and more! As an added bonus the DVD comes with a special code that allows you to visit www.iplaymusic.com and download this video series to your video iPod.

Customer Reviews

The video lessons may be inviting, but the book and instruction is very lacking. First, there is actually not a single bit of music anywhere - no tab, no staff, no lyrics. To "learn" a song you are asked to play a video from the DVD. That would be fine if there was anything included here to go along with the video, but there's not. The publisher must think all one has to do to play like Clapton, say, is watch him on a video. You can get better video lessons on YouTube. Second, the production quality here is terrible. Whole pages are taken up with a single major chord, made up of a dark, very grainy photo of a hand forming the chord and a simple fret illustration. Maybe they decided it was more important to waste all the page space with very poor graphics rather than include, oh, something as minor as the lyrics and chords of the songs they say you can learn. There are some excellent guitar methods available on iPlayMusic.com. But if you want the worst one, I think this one has the market to itself. iPlayMusic should be ashamed that this thing got out the door, at least without a leash.
