Behind The Wheel - Spanish 2

Synopsis

Behind the Wheel: Spanish Level 2 first reviews earlier vocabulary and lessons from Spanish Level 1 to reinforce the foundation of knowledge and understanding established in the first course of the Spanish series. The course then continues to evolve and expand all of these areas, focusing on medium-length sentence combinations, short stories and language transformations. This course takes the user to a level of functional fluency, providing an arsenal of versatile and original sentences that will be immediately understood by native Spanish speakers. Like Spanish Level 1, Spanish Level 2 features both English and native Spanish speaking instructors.

Customer Reviews

I drive over 500 miles a month. And next month, I go to Spain, although I won't be driving there. Thus, quiero, deseo, y necesito aprender español. I've been taking a group class, as well as one-to-one, but to learn Spanish, one must diversify the methods. I recently added this CD collection to my arsenal of Spanish learning tools. First off, I highly recommend it, as it presents drills of words, verbs, and phrases. You will need to have a decent command of Spanish terminology, if not actual word/verb usage with this CD. You can get by without knowing this, but much of the content will be new. Though there is a book that accompanies the CD set---listing all of the words and phrases in order---you don't want to flip through this while driving. Like many Spanish language CDs, it has a 'host' or 'MC,' who guides the process along. His voice is very soothing, and he would make a great instructor. The words and phrases are then offered in Spanish by a male speaker and by a female speaker. I like the male speaker the best, as he speaks slowly and he e-n-u-n-c-i-a-t-e-s each word. In contrast, the female speaker talks fast and it is difficult, at times, to tease out what she is saying. While this makes it a challenge to learn, it is helpful in some respects, as what she offers is 'authentic' Spanish (i.e., fast for the novice speaker and listener). Each CD mixes up how the words/phrases are presented. They start off with simple vocabulary/concepts such as: how do you say 'I want'; how do you say 'there are'; how do you say 'I like'; how do you say 'give me the pen,' formal; how do you say 'how are you,' informal; how do you say 'go straight and then turn left;' etc.
